the times they are a-changin' come gather 'round people, wherever you roam and admit that the waters around you have grown and accept it that soon you'll be drenched to the bone if your time to you is worth saving, then you'd better start swimming or you'll sink like a stone, for the times they are a-changin'.

come writers and critics who prophesy with your pen and keep your eyes – the chance won't come again. and I won't speak too soon for the wheel's still in spin and there's no telling who that it's naming cause losers right now will be later to win, for the times they are a-changin'.

come senators and congressmen – please heed the call don't stand in the doorways, don't block up the halls for he that gets hurt will be he that has stalled the battle outside raging will soon shake your windows and rattle your walls.
for the times they are a-changin'.

the line it is drawn, the curse it is cast the slower now will later be fast and the present now will later be past the order is rapidly fading the first one now will later be last.
for the times they are a-changin'.

to behold a whole new day aborning to heed the call of dawn's creation to look inward and see soul to gaze outward and see hope to feel new meaning in life to search for who you are to find purpose in being to sense challenge in becoming to see adventure in flights transitory to see eternity in truths immutable to reach . . .

to touch . . .

to know . . .

to rejoice with the glowing dawn to see light where there is dark to seek peace where there is none to embrace the universe to value warm embraces to live the present to seek the future

to find summer's joy in winter sunshine in rain to accept your place in today to be someone's golden moment to love to live

to live to love to laugh . . .

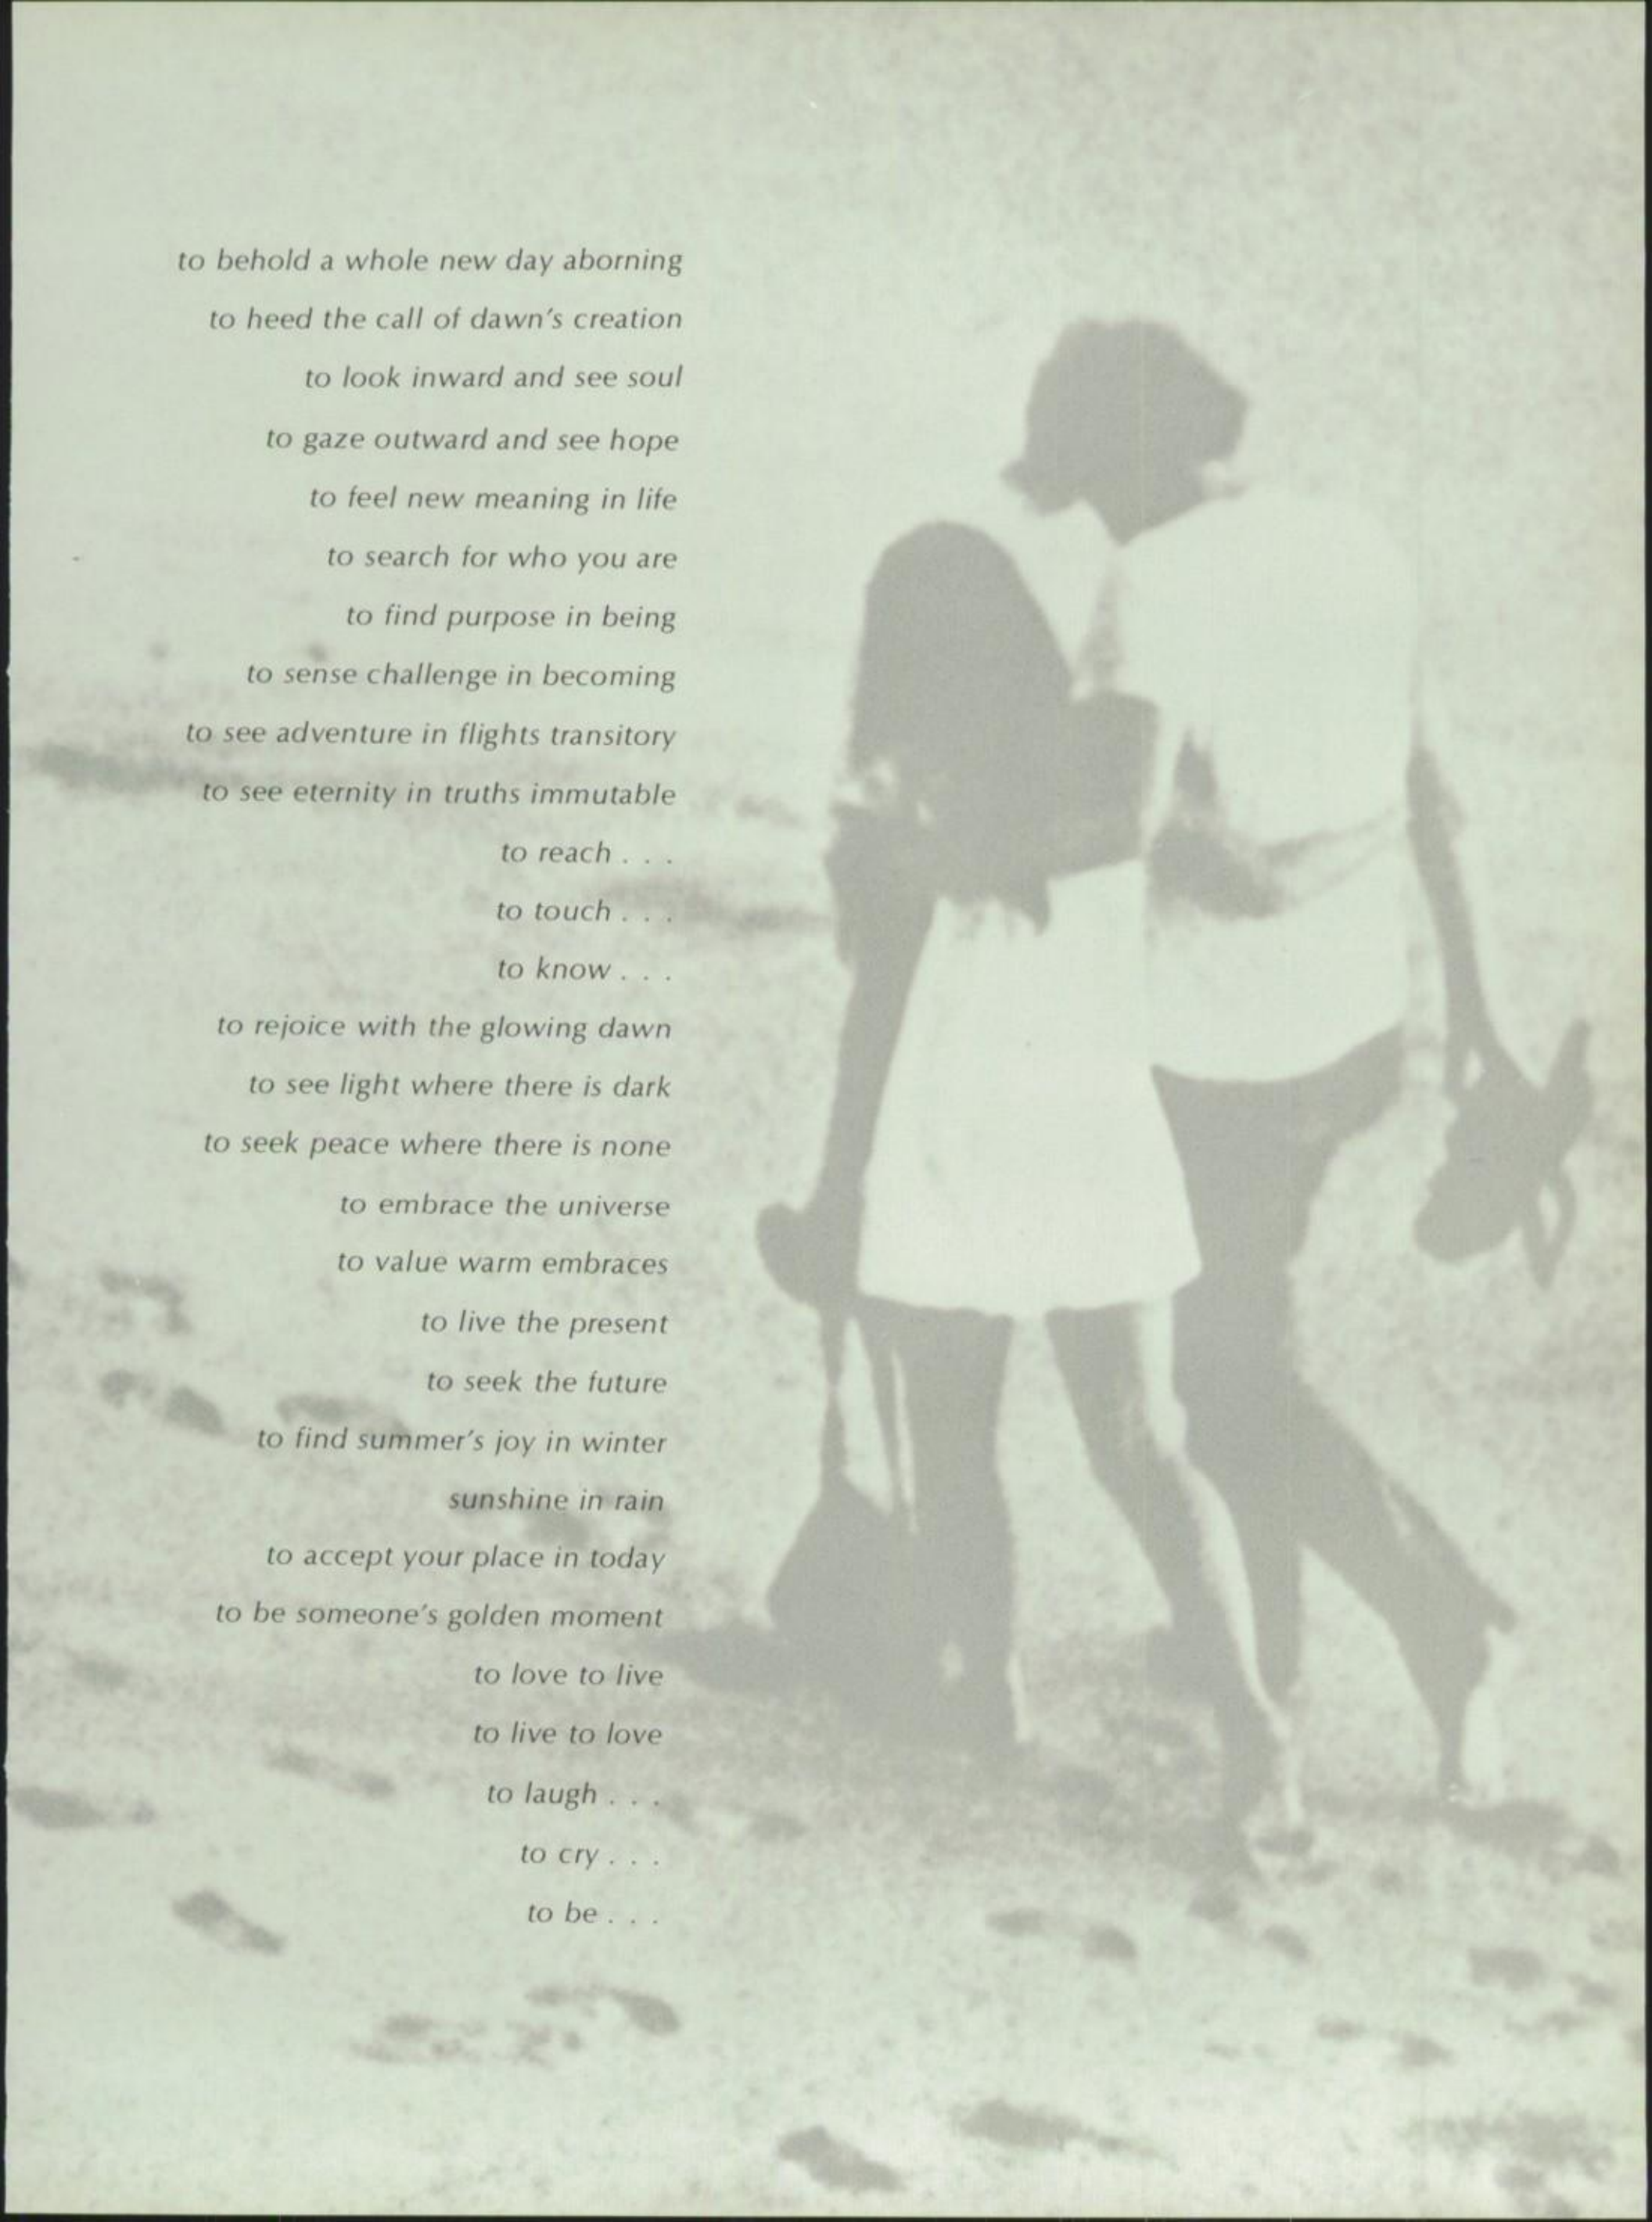
to cry . . .

to be . . .



it's all a matter of opening up your eyes
. . . and seeing that it's all there . . .
